

PHILADELPHIA
PARKS & RECREATION

2022 Philadelphia International Unity Cup

Philadelphia International Unity Cup is a World Cup-style tournament held over several months that unites the city's neighborhoods and celebrates its diverse immigrant communities through soccer. Founded in 2016, the Unity Cup is an annual tradition amongst Philadelphia soccer fans and the City's diverse immigrant communities.

The 2022 6th Annual Philadelphia International Unity Cup was even more successful than years before, and puts Philadelphia firmly on the map as a Global Welcoming City.

Welcome! Newcomers to the 2022 Unity Cup:

Angola

The Dominican Republic

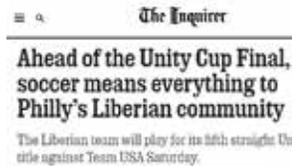

Portugal

Uruguay

2022 Unity Cup by the numbers

48 Teams	79 Matches	6 Locations	30 Youth players
1,200 Players and coaches	2,200 Championship attendees	12,822 Total attendees	124 Youth artists in poster contest
100+ News articles	$700,000+ In free local publicity (AVE)

Media Highlights

Sponsors

The Unity Cup was presented by The City of Philadelphia in partnership with Philadelphia Soccer 2026. Tournament sponsors included:

2023 sponsorship opportunities available! Contact john.murawski@phila.gov to learn more